MEXICANS STIRRING UP TROUBLE

REBELS INCREASING IN NUMBER AND HEAVY FIGHTING IN PROSPECT.

Douglas, Ariz., March 9.—Encamped within striking distance of several important border towns, 800 constitutionalist troops rested on arms today, while insurrections among federal garrisons strengthened materially the rebel forces. No word has come from Nacozari, south of here, where a fierce battle waged all yesterday, and it is not known what the result of the encounter has been. The last word received from the besieged city was from the telegraph operator, who flashed “too hot for me here,” and left his key just before fore all wires between Douglas and Nacozari were cut.

Open revolt and scenes of disorder have occurred among 250 Federal defenders of Agua Prieta and the military officials today gave warning to all Americans to leave the town.

Today the best citizens of Agua Prieta generally fled to Douglas, while the drunken and rebellious soldiers paraded the streets crying “Viva Madero!” “Viva Maytorena!” and “Viva Diaz!” Brawls between politically estranged companions in arms added to the confusion and terror which held the town in its grip throughout the day.

“Mr. Smith, you have the nicest, cleanest and most attractive furniture store I have ever seen,” said one of our prominent women to R. F. Smith the other day. “It does my eyes good to see a store that is always primmed up; it makes me think the merchant is a sure enough business man.”

OTIS WEAVER MUCH BETTER

RECOVERY EXPECTED UNLESS UNEXPECTED COMPLICATIONS SET UP.

The many friends of Otis Weaver will rejoice to learn that his condition continues to improve. About 10 o'clock Sunday morning he took a turn for the better, and the improvement has been steady ever since. At 3 this afternoon the surgeons stated that unless some unlooked for complication set up, he would recover.

A great deal of concern has been manifested by his Ada friends, and many inquiries have poured into the News office. Sunday a dozen or more went from Ada to Shawnee to tender what assistance they could, but of course nothing could be done and in his weakened condition the surgeon refused admission to all alike.

JUDGE U. G. WINN RE-CEIVES APPOINTMENT

Postmaster U. G. Winn has just received an honor at the hands of Gov. Cruce in the shape of appointment as one of the fifteen delegates to represent the state at the national drainage congress which convenes at St. Louis April 10.

J. W. Deane of the Amador Gold Mining Co., Amador, California, left Sunday morning after spending a day or two with W. L. Whitaker.

BURGLARS VISIT R. E. HAYNES STORE

CARRY OFF THREE GUNS, SOME SHELLS AND MANY POCKET KNIVES.

Sometime Sunday night burglars entered the hardware store of R. E. Haynes and helped themselves to a couple of shotguns, a Winchester, a lot of shells and some sixty-five or seventy-five pocket knives. The value of the stolen goods could not have been less than $100. They also made an attempt to get into the safe, but were unable to accomplish this.

The thieves effected their entrance into the building by tearing a part of the screen from a rear door, breaking the glass and reaching through and lifting the bar from its pocket, thus enabling them to open the door.

One of the shotguns was an L. C. Smith make and the other a Hopkins & Allen.

HUNG JURY IN CLAR-
ENCE DARROW CASE

Los Angeles, Calif., March 8.—Shortly before noon today the jury that tried Clarence Darrow on a charge of jury bribery in connection with the McNamara case, again reported that it was unable to reach an agreement and the members were discharged. The last ballot stood eight to four, but whether for acquittal or conviction could not be learned.

The case went to the jury yesterday morning at 8:30. At 10:13 this morning the members reported that they could not agree but were sent back further deliberations. When no change was shown at noon, the court discharged them.

Darrow's counsel announced that he would ask for a retrial in Chicago.

PUBLIC BETTING ON BASE-BALL IS GAMBLING

Betting on a baseball game in the presence of men, women, boys and girls “outrages public decency and injures public morals” and is therefore a misdemeanor under the laws of Oklahoma, according to a decision of Judge Henry M. Furman in the criminal court of appeals Saturday in reversing the decision of the county court of Bryan county in the case of the state of Oklahoma vs. R. J. Lawrence.

When Lawrence was arraigned before the lower court on the charge that he had bet $5 with one Jake Sims on a baseball game while the game was progressing and that this act was in the presence of a large concourse of people, he demurred to the charge that no crime was committed. The statutes, he urged, were void for uncertainty. On this ground the demurrer was sustained, the state however appealing.

In his opinion, Judge Furman held that the information was based on Section 2782 of the compiled laws of 1909, which provides that an act which openly outrages public decency and is injurious to public morals is a misdemeanor. Judge Furman held that this statute is not void for uncertainty and any act which is willful and wrongful is within its terms. The case was remanded for a retrial.

Estimated wage increases as a result of the efforts of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, approximate $2,200,000, and decreases in hours amounting to many thousands more have been won.

SHAW'S

FINGERS OF BOY ARE
TORN AWAY BY CAP

Clarence Leaf, nine years old, of Oklahoma City, a caddy at the Country club, lost the thumb and all the fingers of his left hand except the little one between which he was holding a dynamite cap, and part of the thumb and index finger of the right hand, while poking into it with a hairpin on the links Saturday afternoon.

He was standing in a group of half a dozen caddies when one of them, George Duncan, picked up the cap. He gave it to Leaf whose curiosity as to the probable action of the cap under proper treatment became aroused. He hunted about on the ground and found a hairpin. Gingerly he began probing the explosive until there was a blast. Part of the shell fragments tore his right palm, one lodged in his forehead and another in right ear.

Any erroneous reflection on the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

Obituaries and Resolutions of Respect of less than 100 words will be published free. For all matter in excess of 100 words a charge of one cent per word will be made. Count your words and remit with manuscript.

A newspaper headline reads: "Mother of eighty complains." Don't wonder at it. We find even six troublesome.—Mannsville Herald.

The capturing and conviction of bank robbers in Oklahoma has been something of a rarity in recent years and R. C. Roland is one of the few county attorneys who succeeded in such an undertaking. He did some hard work in securing evidence in the Francis case, but he got what he went after all right.

The legislators are now working on a basis of $2 per day, but it is not likely that they will remain there long on such short rations. It is now probable that when the most important work has been completed the solons will adjourn and be called together again in special session to complete their work while drawing pay at the old rate of $6 per.

Because so many young men of Durant own automobiles, or whose parents own them, do not take the girls out riding a young girl of that town was overheard to remark: "I think Durant has some awfully selfish and short young men," and another came back with: "Short ain't no name for 'em' girls. They could run a merry-go-round inside a peanut hull and leave room for a presidential inauguration ceremony," while the third pined: "Ah, why don't you tell it like this. These boys are so short that the whole bunch of 'em could sit upon a pinhead and leave room to graze a million head of cattle."

The legislature is still scrapping over the congressional districting bill. The question is whether to give the Democrats all eight districts by slender majorities, or corral most of the Republicans in one district and leave the other seven solid for the

Not a Man's World.
This is not righty a man's world. Great men are but dreams of women become militant. Women are the real inspirers of men; they ignite his every conception. Never yet has man sung, painted, prophesied nor in any way woven tighter the spirit of his time, but that his mother was first great enough to attract the gift; and more often than not, upon his maturity, the potential gift was startled into its supreme expression by another mother's daughter.—Will Levington Comfort.

Believes Hens Once Had Teeth.
That hens had teeth in the olden days is the opinion of Professor Gilbert of Los Angeles (Cal.) high school. In a recent address before a local organization of naturalists he also told his auditors that the eggs of birds have greatly decreased in size since their teeth became extinct. Had they been marketed then as they are now, he considered, they would, at the present scale of egg prices, bring from $250 to $1,000 each.

Old-Time Letter Writing.
For the purposes of letter-writing the leaves of some trees were early used, while the inner bark of the linden tree was in such common demand for this purpose that it has given the word for a book to two languages. But one of the most convenient materials for letter-writing were tablets covered with a thin coating of wax, upon which it was easy to write with a pointed needle called a stylus.

Sleuthing Coffee Fragrance.
Under Frederick the Great fellows with keen, long noses, throughout the country got jobs as Coffee-smellers to detect the odor off the boiling coffee. The government tried building big coffee roasting plants and charging high prices, and in time the Germans all turned again to beer, and coffee was considered a luxury.

Town's Disipated Son.
Rube—"Did you hear that Zachary and his wife had an awful row at the supper table the other night?" Postmaster—"Did they? What did Zachary do about it?" Rube—"He got right up from the table and went out and stayed out until ten minutes after nine. If he doesn't reform he'll give this town a bad name."

Furniture New to Mary.
A lady out shopping ordered an umbrella stand sent home for her vestibule, and only reached home late in the evening, where she had left her new maid in charge. "Well, Mary," she said, "did any packages come?" "Yes, mum," was the reply. "The wagon cum wid th' cuspidore for th' umbrellas."

Worth While.
We may be sure, although we know not how, we give our lives like coral insects, to build up, invisibly, in the twilight of the seas of time, the reef of righteousness; and we may be sure, although we see not why, it is a thing worth doing.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

To Help in Hanging Pictures.
Cut a groove in the end of a curtain pole, place the end of the picture wire in it, and hoist it up to the nail or hook from which it is to hang. This saves climbing up and down, and also allows one to see more clearly how the picture is going to look.

Care of Broken China.
When mending broken china always place it to set in a large box filled with sawdust. By this means it is easy to stand the article in any desired position, so that its own weight holds the pieces in place, while the cement is hardening.

Small Boy Again.
"Bobby, do you see that bright star overhead, at the top of the big cross?" "Yes," "Well, that's Deneb. It is nearly three quadrillions of miles away." "Huh! Then how do you know its name is Deneb?"

Speak Guardedly.
Speak not at all, in any wise, till you have somewhat to speak; care not for the reward of your speaking, but simply and with undivided mind for the truth of your speaking.—Carlyle.

Slopping Over.
New Minister—"How did you like my sermon this morning?" Enthusiastic Parishioner—"It was simply grandiloquent."—Baltimore American.

Why the Nickname.
"Why do they call him the 'Fighting Parson'?" "Because he has to fight his parishioners to get his salary."—Judge.

Trouble With the Auto.
"Faver," said a 4-year-old boy, "Mr. Collins had a hard time to start his auto. He had to twist its tail four times!"

Brains and Vanity.
Women of strong brain are never vain, if my experience be a true teacher.—London Truth.

It, Also, Talks.
Hush money is sure to blab, sooner or later.

FIRE A BUGH

DESTROYS FIVE BUILDINGS—MAY HAVE BEEN WORK OF FIRE BUG.

About 2 o'clock Sunday night Fitzhugh was visited by a fire which destroyed the pool hall, Ballard's blacksmith shop, McKee's grocery store, the postoffice and Dr. T. A. Hill's office. The fire originated in the pool hall, and is thought to have possibly been of incendiary origin. No estimate of the amount of damage could be obtained.

GIRL AFTER L N VICINITY OF ALLEN

M. B. Donaghey informs the News that one of the companies that have been securing leases around Allen, including some of Mr. Donaghey's land, has posted a cash forfeit to begin operations with in ninety days, which is taken to mean that it really means business. Mr. Donaghey says that before the close of the year at least six wells will be drilled. Naturally he is very enthusiastic over the prospect.

GOES BACK TO FACE OLD MURDER CHARGE

Norman, Okla., March 10.—After sixteen years as a refugee from justice, John Hollingsworth, alias Bob Logan, is to answer for a double murder which he is alleged to have committed in Cannon county, Tenn., in 1897. Sheriff Pickard of Cleveland county left with his charge Sunday evening for Murfreesboro, Tenn., to which place Governor Cruce has procured a change of venue from Cannon county as a condition precedent to his honoring the requisition of the state of Tennessee. Hollingsworth has been in the Cleveland county jail since September 24, 1909, during which time the Tennessee authorities have made five attempts to obtain his transfer.

Hollingsworth does not know how old he is, but from events which he remembers he is estimated to be about 72 years of age. His appearance to bear out this estimate as he is gray and stooped and very insecure on his feet.

PAST WEEKS OCCURRENCES AT THE ADA NORMAL

The spring term opened Tuesday and several new students enrolled. East Central continues to climb slowly but surely.

President Briles is getting calls every day for teachers for another school year. High school teachers are especially in demand, and East Central graduates will take their places in the high school ranks immediately on leaving school. Of all the graduates of this normal now in the teaching profession there are only three or four not doing high-school work.

Miss Jean Kirwan has arrived in Ada from Bartlesville and has taken charge of one of the rooms in the training school. Miss Kirwan has been an instructor in the high school of Bartlesville for some time, and she is recognized as one of the best teachers in Oklahoma. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and attended the state normal at Stevens Point, Wis. She no doubt will add materially to the strength of the training school department. President Briles has been careful in selecting a teacher for this place, as he was very anxious to get the best. Mrs. Briles has been doing this work during the past few months.

It is the desire of the East Central authorities to make the training school one of the best. No efforts will be spared to do this. Professor M. L. Perkins, who is now in the school of education of the University of Chicago, will be back for the summer term and take charge of this department. He, with the assistance now of the young ladies in the department, will make things take on a new appearance.

Professor E. A. McMillan is mounting various birds that are common to this locality and placing them in the normal museum. He says that East Central will have a museum second to none in the state, especially in the animal line.

Frank McCain, who was captain of the baseball team last year, left Ada Wednesday to take charge of a school in Johnston county. While the student body is sorry to lose a valuable a ball player at this time of the year, all wish him well in his career as a teacher.

A. D. Coon is fitting up an optical parlor over the Surprise store.

"Music for sale." Anything from "Turkey in the Straw" to "Mr. Dream Man," and any of the Oh, Oh, Oh, Rag; see Benham & Murphy.—Adv. in the Enfield Express.

Rev. A. M. Cassidy returned this afternoon from Kingston, where he has just closed a successful revival.

Mrs. G. Duncan held a reunion of her family at Charley Krieger's Sunday. It was in honor of the arrival of a ten pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Krieger.

Uncomfortable C.
Some years ago, says Brander Matthews in the Century Magazine, a friend of Oliver Herford was going to Europe on the Celtic, and the evening before his departure Mr. Herford called him up on the telephone to say good-by. He asked what ship his friend was going on, and some imp of the perverse prompted the friend to answer that he was sailing on the Celtic. Mr. Herford promptly responded, "Don't say that, or you will have a hard C all the way over!"

His Mother's Crime.
A guild of godparents to save children from incongruous names is being suggested. The late Canon Bardsley, author of a book on English names, told the story of what was probably the most idiotic name ever bestowed upon an unfortunate infant. A woman had her son baptized What, for no other reason than to cause amusement in future years, when, being asked his name, he should reply "What."—London Chronicle.

Fitting for Higher Things.
We may call the higher kingdom a spiritual kingdom or not, as we choose; but it is at least not "meat and drink." Only as a man realizes something of it can he hope to understand even himself, or his true relation to the life that now is. And it is only through a proper understanding of his relation to the present life that a man can fit himself for participation in the life of the spirit.—Exchange.

Puzzled Childish Mind.
Ward is aged 6. He stood close by his mother as she looked over last summer's wearing apparel. Finally she turned to him, and, holding up a pair of his old pants, said: "Well, I declare, these pants are too small for you." The child looked at them thoughtfully for awhile, then asked, "Mother, what makes pants grow small?"

Navajo Women Own Property.
While the Navajo men and boys take care of the flocks and herds, the women own the property. It is the Navajo woman who has the final say as to the disposal of sheep and cattle. This is not the result of any recent movement in behalf of equal suffrage, but has obtained among the Navajos since time immemorial.

King of Beasts Easily Scared.
A curious story comes from Kamacha, South Africa. Some English ladies were picnicking in a glade near Hell's Gate, Kamacha, recently, when they were suddenly confronted by a lion. He was scared, presumably at the volume of steam from a tea-kettle, for he only roared and made off.

FOUR PRISONERS TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY

This morning Sheriff Mitchell and Miller left for McAlester in charge of four men under sentence. Of these T. L. Foster and Andro De Gino were convicted of blowing the vault in the Francis bank, John Kiddle was convicted of false pretenses, and Jim Robinson, colored was sentenced on a plea of guilty to stealing some clothing and a watch.

His tone is full and resonant and unusually elastic in quality. His interpretations show a strong feeling for the lyric and dramatic in musical art, and he succeeds in holding the interest of an audience to a degree unusual with a pianoforte program.—London Crystal Palace Chronicle.

On Trial for Alleged Murder.

New, N. J., March 10.—The case of Antonio Flore, charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, Leonardo Cione, was called in court today for trial. Cione died on March 7 last as a result, it is alleged, of a dose of rat poison given to him in a cup of coffee by his wife. The motive for the murder, it is said, was a desire to get the husband out of the way because he had discovered that an illicit love affair existed between his wife and Flore. Mrs. Cione has already been tried and convicted for her part in the crime and is now under sentence of death. She is expected to be the state's principal witness against Flore. According to her testimony at her own trial she gave the poison to her husband at the instigation of Flore and because the latter, so she declared, had threatened to kill her unless she did his bidding.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Forty-nine new pupils entered the public schools of the city during the month of March. This makes the total enrollment to date 1317.

Quite a lot of interest is being taken by the children in home work since Supt. Robison has put into practice the plan of giving school credit for this work.

A very successful patron club meeting was held at Irving building Friday afternoon at which about fifty mothers were present. In order to give the men a chance to attend these meetings, the ladies voted to hold a social meeting at the building next Friday evening.

Mr. L. T. Walters brought the Victrola to the High school this morning and the pupils were delighted with the entertainment given. Mrs. Gantt's room furnished a special feature of the chapel exercises this morning also.

A number of the teachers and pupils have taken quite an interest in the appearance of their respective rooms this year and have in different ways placed one or more nicely framed pictures in them. A large picture of Sir Galahad was recently placed in the auditorium of the high school.

On the afternoon of April 25th special programs will be rendered on the campus of the high school at which time a May day program and field exercises will be pulled off.

FULL TEXT OF THE WEBB LIQUOR BILL

The Webb bill, substituted for the Sheppard-Kenyon bill, and passed by both houses of congress, is as follows: "The shipment or transportation in any manner or by any means whatsoever, of any spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquor of any kind, from the state, territory or district of the United States or place noncontiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, into any other state, territory or district of the United States or place noncontiguous to, but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, or from any foreign country into any state, territory or district of the United States or places noncontiguous to, but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, which said spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquor is intended, by any person interested therein, to be received, possessed, sold, or in any manner used, either in the original package or otherwise, in violation of any law of such state, territory or district of the United States or place noncontiguous to, but subject to jurisdiction thereof, is hereby prohibited."

50 Years Since Alexandra's Wedding Day.

London, March 10.—Many of the London papers this morning recalled the fact that had King Edward VII. lived he and Queen Alexandra would have celebrated their golden wedding today. It was on March 10, 1863, that Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, married Alexandra, daughter of the late King Christian IX. of Denmark, in St. George's Chapel, Windsor. The Prince of Wales was 22 years old and Princess Alexandra was 19.

Marlborough House, to which Queen Alexandra returned to live after the death of King Edward, bears many mute evidences of the love in which the widowed queen holds the memory of her late husband. By her express command everything within the palace has now been replaced so that it shall present precisely the same appearance as it did during the many happy years she spent there as Princess of Wales. The restoration has been carried out down the smallest detail, especially with regard to the apartments that were used by the late King. The portrait that now hangs over the mantelpiece in his private room, where he transacted business affairs when he was Prince of Wales, is that of the late king taken a short time before he died. In former days the place of this was taken by a painting of Queen Alexandra as a bride.

Mooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Great-est of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradford Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

GOOD WEATHER IN PROSPECT FOR WEEK

—Good weather in prospect. Washington, March 9.—Spring-time weather, with fair skies and normal temperatures, is promised for the coming week to all sections of the country, by the Weather Bureau.

"The distribution of pressure over the northern hemisphere," says the bureau's weekly bulletin, "is such as to indicate that the temperature during the current week will average near the normal over practically all parts of the country. Precipitation during the week will be generally light and local. It is not probable that any general storm will cross the country during the week."

His Last Chance for Life.

Lincoln, Neb., March 10.—A last appeal to save Albert Prince from the fallows was made to the state board of pardons today. The case has been before the courts for more than a year and has attracted wide attention. Prince, a negro, was serving a sentence for burglary in the state penitentiary here when, on February 11, 1912, he stabbed and killed Deputy Warden Davis during services in the prison chapel. The crime was the beginning of a series of tragedies at the penitentiary, in which four officials and three convicts were killed. Prince was convicted of murder and sentenced to hang on August 30 last. The execution was stayed by an appeal to the supreme court, which tribunal later reaffirmed the sentence. Unless the board of pardons interferes the negro will be executed on Friday of next week.

Winthrop Child Was Restored to Health by Vinol.

"Five years ago our little girl had a severe attack of diphtheria which left her subject to bronchitis and stomach trouble. She has been almost constantly under medical treatment. I have also tried two or three remedies containing cod liver oil but found her stomach rebelled against the oil. Reading your description of Vinol I decided to try it and did so with most astonishing results. I cannot begin to tell you how she has improved because you do not know what a little sufferer she was for five years. She has gained ten pounds since she commenced to take Vinol, and the story of what Vinol has done for her is only half told in this letter." Mrs. Adelaide Mulloy, Winthrop, Mass.

Vinol contains all the healing curative properties of cod liver oil, without the oil and tonic iron added. That is why it helped this little girl after other remedies had failed.

We ask mothers of weak, sickly children to try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to help them. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

DRASTIC PROHIBITION LAW ENACTED

Oklahoma City, Ok., March 10.—More stringent penalties are provided in the amended prohibition law approved by Gov. Cruce Saturday morning, Sec. 11 of the law of 1911 is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 11. All liquors, property and things seized under the provisions of this act shall, upon being adjudicated forfeited to the state, be forthwith destroyed by the office in whose custody the same is at the time of adjudication, provided, that the Judge or Magistrate may, in his discretion, appoint a special officer to the purpose, of executing the judgment for forfeiture by destroying said liquor, property and things; provided, further, that if, in the opinion of the Judge or Magistrate, such forfeited property and things, other than liquor, is of value and adapted to any lawful use, such Judge or Magistrate shall, as a part of the order and judgment in the case, direct that such property or things of value be turned over to the Board of County Commissioners to be by said Board of Commissioners sold and disposed of for the benefit of the court fund of the county; provided, however, that 25 per cent of all the proceeds, including all money, and cash seized, with the other things of value, shall be paid to the party who prosecuted the search and seizure proceedings."

Elastic Penalty Provisions. An elastic penalty embraces a felony, as provided in Sec. 16 of the 1911 act, which is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 16. For the second and each subsequent conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this act the penalty shall be a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $2,000, and by imprisonment of not less than thirty days in the county jail, nor more than five years in the state penitentiary, and it shall be mandatory upon the trial judge in cases where any one has been convicted under any provisions of this act to pronounce sentence within ten days from the date of conviction."

It Makes All the Difference In the World

That's what you say when you tell your friends about your shopping expeditions.

It may be the principals of the store, the service it offers or the quality of the goods it sells that you are discussing. But the difference to you means your satisfaction or disappointment.

You will find when you deal with the merchants who advertise in the NEWS that the difference stands always for satisfaction. Each store values its reputation too much to risk disappointing you. Each wants your good will. So they direct every effort to serve you best and give you the best values.

FIRST APPLICATION DARKENS THE HAIR

A Simple Remedy Gives Color, Strength and Beauty to the Hair.

You don't have to have gray hair or faded hair if you don't want to. Why look old or unattractive? If your hair is gray or faded, you can change it easily, quickly and effectively by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. Apply a little tonight, and in the morning you will be agreeably surprised at the results from a single application. The gray hairs will be less conspicuous, and after a few more applications will be restored to natural color.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur also quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, and promotes the growth of the hair. It is a clean, wholesome dressing which may be used at any time with perfect safety.

Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and see how quickly it will restore the youthful color and beauty of your hair and forever end the nasty dandruff, hot, itchy scalp and falling hair. All agents sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if you are not satisfied after a fair trial. Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.—ad.
